To all Holders of Allowed Claims in SEC v. Tanner, et al., ("Capital Enhancement Club"):

On May 22, 2007, the United States District Court for the District of Kansas entered its Order Granting the Receiver's Motion for Approval of Plan of General Distribution to Investors. This Order authorizes Larry E. Cook (the "Receiver") to make distribution of recovered investor funds, less expenses, to the holders of Allowed Claims in this Case. The Receiver's staff began printing distribution checks on May 22, 2007 and this process is now complete. The Receiver's staff is presently working to place the distribution checks in envelopes addressed to the holders of Allowed Claims. This process will be completed this afternoon and tomorrow and the distribution checks will be deposited in the mail. The distribution checks will be for 13% of the Allowed Claim amount for each holder of an Allowed Claim. The Receiver anticipates one or more additional distribution as defrauded investor funds are recovered and/or receivership assets are liquidated.

Best regards,

Larry E. Cook, Receiver for CEC
